DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD,JJ.
DATED : JANUARY 31, 2006

P.C.

. Considering the reply filed on behalf of the Respondents as set out in Paragraph 4k and the rejoinder by the Petitioners to that Paragraph as set out in Paragraph 13, it will not be possible for this court to invoke the extra ordinary jurisdiction. At the highest,considering the controversy, Respondent No. 1 to give to the Petitioners a break up in terms of Para 4k of the amounts which the society has paid in respect of the property. That amount which is paid, necessarily will have to be adjusted against the taxes as demanded by the Respondent No. 1. With the above observations, no interference is called for in the extra ordinary jurisdiction of this court. Hence, Petition rejected.
